PREACHER ARRESTED.

He Has a Peculiar Method of Aiding the Poor.

Chicago, March 31.—"Dr." Dewing, who says he is a minister of the Gospel, had a peculiar method of aiding the poor which has led to his arrest on a charge of embezzling from railroads. Railroads having headquarters in Chicago charge him of beating them out of thousands of dollars worth of transportation. Dewing has made a confession in which he says that all the money thus obtained was used for charity. He is said to have made a practice of buying mileage tickets at half rates, claiming that he was a minister, and then selling the tickets to Chicago brokers. He was arrested Wednesday in the offices of the Michigan Central railway while he was waiting for a ticket to be countersigned by officers of the company.

In his confession Dewing said: "Yes, I admit that I purchased mileage at 'preachers' rates, and sold it to ticket brokers. I used every cent of the money to better the condition of the poor of Chicago, though, and if I have greatly sinned, I'm sure God will overlook the fault. I was educated in an eastern theological seminary and began slum work in Chicago a few months ago. I was appalled by the shocking condition here. All of my money was spent, and as I saw so many persons starving I felt that I was justified in procuring funds in the manner I did."

Having made a thorough investigation of the case, it is said that the railroads who are complainants against Dewing will be satisfied with a small fine, as his story is believed.

A PARTY OF HAIRY AINUS.

They Are on Their Way to the St. Louis Exposition.

Victoria, B. C., March 31.—The Canadian Pacific steamer Empress of Japan arrived from Yokohama Wednesday. Among her passengers was a party of Hairy Ainus from the island of Hokkaido, in charge of Prof. Fred Starr, lecturer in the department of anthropology at the University of Chicago. He is to be in charge of that department at the St. Louis exposition. The men are small but well proportioned and have long beards and intelligent faces. The women are handsome and dress in gaudy costumes.
